It Is An Asset

of no little value for a bank patron to be able to refer to "My Bank" when desiring to establish character or credit. We are always pleased to have our patrons assume this proprietary interest in us and are always ready to respond truthfully to inquiries regarding our customers.
It is not because of patronage that we do this, but because bus-

Crescent City News

Personal and Social.

Dr. Geo. C. Calhoun has moved into the Fuller cottage on Summit street, a place much handier to his office.

Mrs. J. H. Mathis and her visiting son, Mr. John H. Mathis Jr., of Dayton, Ohio, spent several days last week in St. Augustine.

Mrs. W. M. Miller, who has been spending several months at her old home in Quincy, Ill., is expected home in a few days.

One lady who talked with the News man this week feels that the town is in a serious predicament with every minister in the place off on a vacation.

The launch St. Johns is on the ways at Boyd's ship yard in Palatka for a thorough overhauling and painting.
Capt. Miller is there in charge of the job.

His Padgett Jr recovered from his recent illness sufficiently last week to enable him to visit the beach. His little son, Roy, is also improving and is up about the house.

The plasterers finally got to work on the interior of the new Catholic church last week and it is only a question of a little time now when the church will be completed and services will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Capron and family, who have lived for several months in the Jeal cottage on Main street, have moved to Jacksonville. They were a pleasant family and will be greatly missed, especially by near neighbors.

Col. Geo. T. Graham was taken ill while attending to professional duties in Lexington, S. C., and this is the reason for his long absence from home. At last report, he was improving. His trouble is said to have been malaria.

News comes from Sapulpa, Oklahoma, that C. Oliver Chamberlin, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chamberlin of this place, has taken unto himself a wife.
The young man has the best wishes and congratulations of his friends here. He is in the hotel business.

Mrs. Cheatham of Huntington gave a reception at her home last Friday evening in honor of the bride and groom—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cartledge. There was a large attendance of people from this place as well as friends from Palatka, including Mayor and Mrs. Howell A. Davis. A most enjoyable evening was the result.

C. J. Hunter has opened a barber shop in the Pythian Temple building and has a barber in charge secured from up in Georgia, who is said to be an artist.
With two barbers of the first class in town it would seem that the male members of society ought to put up a pretty clean face; whether the barbers get rich, or not, is another proposition.

It will interest the people of Crescent City who so thoroughly enjoyed reading the "Legends of Lake Crescent" from the pen of Mr. James R. Hill, and published in this paper last spring, to know that Mr. Hill is continuing his excellent literary work in North Carolina.
The Charlotte Daily Observer, of recent date, publishes a most interesting sketch by Mr. Hill, entitled "The Tragedy of Jump Off Mountain."

Mrs. M. R. Traile writes from Chautaqua, N. Y., that she is busy taking care of nearly 100 boarders at her home in that great educational resort. The New York Symphony orchestra of 50 pieces under the direction of Mr. Walter Damrosch was one of the most recent crowd drawing attractions. It is no wonder that Mrs. Traile enjoys coming to Crescent City for a winter's rest after caring for such a business as her popular house enjoys during the Chautauqua season.

Mrs. M. E. Hunter, the aged mother of Mr. C. J. Hunter, died at his home on Oakwood avenue last Saturday night, death being due to heart failure. Mrs.
Hunter had been about the house as a usual during the day and had dinner and supper with the family. The death by accident of a favorite family horse early in the day had affected her much, and this, with her known heart trouble was undoubtedly the immediate cause of death. Mrs. Hunter was 82 years of age, and since the death of her husband some 15 years ago has made her home with her son, to whose family she was greatly devoted, as were the members to her.
She had been in feeble health for some years. She is survived by three daughters and three sons, viz: Mrs. L. E.
Holley of Crescent City, Miss Kate Hunter of Jacksonville, Mrs. Chas. Babers of Leesburg, Messrs. C. J. and Robert Hunter of Tampa. All except the latter were present at the funeral on Monday at 10 a. m. The interment was in Eden cemetery. The deceased lady had a large circle of friends here and at other points on the Fruitland peninsula, and all will be saddened by news of the death of this aged lady.

The Art of Writing.
Writing began with the rude picture writing on bone and rock and passed slowly by a natural and inevitable transition from the literal representations of the objects to the symbolic suggestion of idea, to a word alphabet and then to pure sound signs. The whole process is manifest from the very infancy of Egyptian picture writing, as crude as that with which the savage peoples still record their deeds.
From these crude signs the process went on in its slow transformation to the phonetic writing typified in the Kosetha stone to the Phoenician, Greek and Roman modifications which brought us to the arbitrary sound symbols which the voice combines into articulate speech.

up the stomach and purifies the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by Ackerman-

Mme. Roland's Request.
When Mme. Roland was on the scaffold she asked for pen and paper to note the peculiar thoughts that hovered about her on the last journey. It is a pity they were refused, for in a tranquil mind thoughts rise up at the close of life hitherto unthinkable, like blessed inward voices alighting in glory on the summits of the past—Goethe.
